

24-Hour Theatre

Parent/Guardian Permission

This weekend, WLHS Thespian Troupe 1915 is producing a popular fundraising event – 24-Hour Theatre. We have four student directors who, along with their cast (chosen at random) will devise a 15-20 minute play based on a poem. They will write and play and rehearse for the next 24 hours, in preparation to perform it in front of a paying audience!

- We will meet in the Black Box at 3:30 pm on Friday, May 19. Actors will be assigned to a director, | and the group will be assigned a poem as their inspiration.
- The director and his/her cast will spend that night and the next day rehearsing in a private home, with an adult on the premises.
- All participants will return to WLHS late afternoon on Saturday, April 20 for a dress rehearsal. Call times will be staggered between 4 pm – 6 pm. Once groups are established on Friday, call times will be determined. All tech participants are called at 3.30 pm. The performance is at 7:00 pm.
- Students will be transported in privately-owned and operated vehicles.
- Students should bring a sleeping bag, pillow, towel, toiletries, and $5.00 to contribute to food the hosts will purchase or arrange for meals. They should give the $5.00 to their host. Bringing snacks to share is always nice, too.
